Dawson County Manager David Headley Tenders Resignation and Plans to Retire

(Dawsonville, Georgia - October 27, 2022) - Longtime County Manager David Headley has tendered his resignation and plans to retire, effective November 4, 2022.

Mr. Headley stated the following: "I feel that the time has come for me to pursue another opportunity that is more aligned with my new aspirations."

Chairman Billy Thurmond noted that Mr. Headley has done a great job serving the citizens of Dawson County as county manager for the past six years.

"Under his leadership, the county has been able to work through many challenges to continue to provide quality services to our citizens," Chairman Thurmond said.

The county thanks Mr. Headley for his dedicated service and wishes him well as he pursues new endeavors. He will be missed.
