Description: 9-27-10: There was no prior record of a business license for this operation, only an EnerGov entry. Per Kevin Tanner, we may issue this license without the special event business license application. This may be considered a 'grandfathered seasonal commercial' use and not subject to the special event license requirements in the ordinance adopted 11-19-09. Home office fee applies. LC 10/28/11: Licensee requests to be placed on a June 31 renewal because that is their slower time. Description: 7-8-10: Grandfathered home occupation. Shop location is TMP 107 125 001 which does not have an E911 address so we used TMP 107 191 (his residence) address of 211 Blacks Mill Trace. Cross reference David L. Louden - The Woodworks.
7-9-10: Donna Rutledge cannot confirm 911 address of 209, but licensee states he was given that address. Donna will research and advise. I issued license with the 209 address. LC
8-19-10: Donna Rutledge is adding the 209 to her addressing database, but not to the 9-1-1 database because she does not have a business phone number separate from the residential listing. Only one land-line number can be associated with one address. She wants Mr. Louden to clearly mark the accessory building with #209 in case of emergency and to designate "shop" or "home" when placing the 911 call. Note that if 9-1-1 had approved the address, they would have issued 211 and not 209. LC
9/8/11: Has not registered the trade name of The Louden Furniture Co. so we issue license as 'David L. Louden Furniture.' lc
